VISIT OF THE MILITARY BOYS

THEY WERE WELCOMED WITH ALL HONOR AND HAD A GRAND TIME.

They Played an Excellent Game of Ball, But Carlsbad Proved Too Much for Them.

The special train having on board the entire corps of cadets of the New Mexico Military Institute, numbering more than sixty, arrived from Roswell at 10:30 Saturday morning. They were accompanied by Col. and Mrs. Meadows, Maj. Wilson, Lieut. Martini, Capt. Fitzgerald and wife and other of the Institute teachers, besides a large number of citizens. The cadets were met at the depot by a large crowd of citizens to welcome them.

The corps of cadets consisted of two companies of thirty members each. Cadet H. Willingham adjutant; Company A, Capt. Earl Patterson; Lewis Read and Daugherty; Company B, Capt. P. D. Hendrick; Lewis, Walthebe and Vivian. They were immediately formed in line of march and proceeded under command of Major Wilson up the street to Hotel Schiltz in fours, marched around the block and back again to Hotel Schiltz, where they were halted and the citizens treated to a first-class drill in the manual of arms and other maneuvering, the cadets, many of whom have been drilled only a short time, displaying great ability. Immediately following the drill the cadets were marched to the train, where they stacked arms and were set at liberty to take in the town, which they proceeded to do at 11:30 noon when they were dinner at the Schiltz.

In the afternoon the boys took in the sights around town and prepared for the ball game which was the event of the day.

The game was called at 2:30 with the Institute at the bat, following being the players:

INSTITUTE.	P	CARLSBAD.
Otero	P	Kerr
Hendrick	C	Lucas
Davis	ss	Woodall
Sisk	1b	McMullin
Walthebe	2b	Matter
Daugherty	3b	Lock
Vivian	lf	Stokes
Frank	cf	Freeman
Romero	rf	Maido

The first round at the bat the Institute didn't make a run, Carlsbad one, and the second round the visitors were equally unfortunate, our boys sharing the same fate.

The third inning the Institute boys got two men home, Carlsbad none, and on the fourth inning the visitors got five men home and Carlsbad got a goose egg.

Things begin to look gloomy at this point for the home team, while the continuous cheering of the cadets and visitors would have done credit to Roosevelt's rough riders.

In the fifth the Institute scored one more and Carlsbad took a trip to the goose's nest, the cadets cheering this time in good fashion but for the last time, the turning point had come. Both failed to make a run in the fifth inning, but the seventh was a glorious one for Carlsbad when four runs were scored and the Institute got nothing. Everybody, including the old women and Ed Gamble, whooped and yelled for Carlsbad now and when in the eighth the Institute fell down and Carlsbad scored two, making the tally 7 to 8 with bright prospects for the home team, it was impossible to hear yourself think.

On the ninth the Institute made another goose egg, and when Carlsbad's turn at the bat came Kerr "fanned," Stokes made first, Lucas hit safe and Freeman got to first on a good hit. McMullin came to the bat and Stokes died on third, leaving Lucas on second and Freeman on first. McMullin hit a two bagger, bringing Lucas in, making it 10 to 8 and putting Freeman on third. Matter was at the bat when by a hard run and a fifteen foot slide, Freeman reached home, saving the day with a score of 9 to 8 in favor of Carlsbad. McMullin was yet on second and only two men out when the game broke up. Cheers fell fast and thick for Carlsbad and hats flew in every direction.

The official score by innings was as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Institute	0	0	2	5	1	0	0	0	8
Carlsbad	1	0	0	0	0	4	2	2	9

The cadets certainly played a good game overall and though the result was somewhat a surprise, they took the defeat good naturedly. They were all gentlemanly fellows and with the exception of one slight misunderstanding everything went off nicely.

The decision of the umpires, L. O. Fuden on "outs" and W. G. Hamilton on "strikes" were well received and were satisfactory to all concerned.

The Carlsbad boys played good ball and after they got up to snuff on Otero's balls, found them often and did some heavy slugging.

In the evening a reception and dance was tendered the cadets in the Union Club rooms where a most enjoyable time was spent till twelve o'clock when the visitors were escorted

THIS palatial new resort solicits the patronage of the people of Carlsbad and Eddy county, guaranteeing courteous treatment and first-class service in all respects. We handle only the best of all kinds of refreshments. For family or medicinal use the renowned J. S. Seary Whisky is unexcelled, as its selection by the U. S. government by the U. S. Marine Hospital will testify. We also handle Sherwood Pure Rye, the best and highest priced of this class of goods on the market.

LAWRENCEBUR, Anderson Co., Ky., 1904.

TO THE TRADE: My brand was selected for use at U. S. Marine Hospital at Washington, D. C., after being analyzed by the eminent chemist, W. M. Mew, over thirty even samples of the leading brands of Kentucky, Maryland and Pennsylvania. It should be borne in mind that in this department of the government service the sample appear in plain bottles, without marks of any kind, and the selection of the Seary Whisky two years, '92 and '93, on its merits, over such a large number of prominent brands is a record that few distillers can show. The water used for the manufacture of this whiskey is from the noted Boiling Spring in Anderson county, Ky., which stands at a temperature of 160 degrees the year round, with a supply inexhaustible. This water is at all times clear. I wish further state that I have never had a single barrel returned.

Very respectfully,

J. S. SEARY.

Horticulturists are paying a good deal of attention now to the Pecos Valley district of New Mexico. At the street fair an apple exhibit made Alva E. Page was one of the best exhibits there.
